Connect to DocEdge.com using a web browser from any Internet connection—whether at home, in the office, or on location. The user-friendly web application is easy to navigate and will quickly guide you to the documents and information you need.

INTELLIGENT SEARCH CAPABILITY

Search for residential, commercial, or other real property records quickly and easily using owner name, street address, APN, legal description, or document ID. With the convenient one-click subject search, you can instantly locate a property's last deed, mortgage, and assessor map. Expand your search with a full transaction history and view all records pertaining to that property—including deeds, mortgages, liens, assignments, transfers, foreclosures, and more. Within seconds, you have the data and documents you need to generate deed, current owner, and full involuntary lien reports faster than ever before.

PROPERTY RECORDS

DocEdge.com's database of high-quality images provides you with current and historical land records from a single nationwide source.
